MONDAY MORNING JANUARY 24 1876

SPAIN AND THE SPANIARDS

The Government of Spain has hitherto been administered by rulers who claimed that they held their authority by the grace of God and who owe no duty to the disgrace of humanity

The King or Queen as it happened has ever been under the control of a general or favorite courtier who mismanaged affairs for his own temporal advantage, and for the lasting ruin of the people Political events were brought about by force or fraud and were dictated by factions who had no care or thought for the welfare of any one but themselves Whoever had the skill to ingratiate the army was the real ruler of Spain the titular monarch being merely a figure head At present although Alfonso holds the throne, Campos and Queen Isabella wield the power The young King either from youth and inexperience or from inherited weakness, has no influence in his own councils He is not able to command the services of either of the two generals named in the suppression of the Carlist insurgents, he must negotiate for it. He fears that if either of the two is sent to the front the other, jealous lest his rival should win the honor of terminating the war will rebel and frustrate the efforts of the Government In order to avoid this the King has determined to go himself, but as yet his languid Majesty has not been able to break away from the enervating delights of the regal palace and proceed to the seat of war In the meantime, the disordered condition of affairs continues, destroying the peace and consuming the scanty substance of the people

But while this condition of things exists, the blame for it should not rest upon the classes of the people In their character there are many things to admire and their faults are due to the long continued and systematic oppression which they have endured They are a brave and loyal people high spirited dignified and generous Their conduct in the war with France, in which Napoleon received his first great check showed what, under proper leadership they were capable of For while other nations of Europe were yielding a submissive obedience to rulers set over them by Napoleon, the Spaniards never for one moment acknowledged or obeyed his authority They opposed him to the extent of their ability, until, by aid of Wellington, his representative was driven from their soil

Many faults the Spaniards unquestionably have, and their ignorance is great That ignorance is due to causes which it is not necessary to speak of in detail They are well known to all readers of history, and were brought about by those whose power depends upon the ignorance of the people, and is destroyed by their education and enlightenment The means of education have been withheld from them They have been taught to rely upon a select few, who know only too well the the danger to their influence which would result from permitting the people to acquire the ability to judge between good and evil Hence, while other nations, under the wise direction of more patriotic rulers, made rapid advances in education and intelligence, the Spaniards have remained stationary Instead of being, as in the time of Philip the II, one of the best nations of the world, they now are one of the most insignificant

Their pride and their loyalty to their spiritual and temporal ruler have contributed, with their ignorance, to make it possible for them to be repressed and oppressed in this manner

In order to understand this, it must be remembered that at the time the Spaniards reached the culminating point of their glory, they have the most powerful people and their ruler, Charles the Vth the most illustrious prince in Europe Everything that could inflate their pride and strengthen their loyalty was theirs They had expelled the heathen from Europe, and earned the title of Most Christian, they had given a new world to the old, their court was the most splendid in Europe, their arms the most terrible, their statesmen settled public law in all the councils of the world They believed themselves above all other peoples But when the printing press was set up and books became common in other countries, when learning ceased to be confined to a few students and churchmen, when the people elsewhere began to think and act for themselves—in Spain and Italy alone the press found no place, no books were put into the peoples' hands, and of free thought and liberty of action there was absolutely nothing They were taught, and believed, that they were the greatest and best people on the globe that their rulers were the wisest, most splendid and most glorious, that obedience to the laws imposed upon them was a religious as well as a civil duty, and that to disobey them was to incur eternal as well as temporal punishment From the lips of those who had not merely their bodies but their souls under their control, they were told this and they believed it So it has been that until a very few years past the Spanish people have taken no thought about the affairs of government but have left the direction of affairs to the care of the grandees or the generals of the army

But now, it seems, that a change is about to be made The people seem to be awakening to a sense of what is due to and from them and a brighter and more glorious future may be in store for them The more the people learn the less will they allow themselves ever by selfish and unscrupulous despots That they will, to a great extent, control both the policy which other nations may pursue is not to be expected and therefore it may be many years ere a tyranny should arise that may be committed before the people shall have learned the way to secure good government But there is too much of good in the constitution of the Spanish mind and character to allow us to believe that the present system will very long endure Such men as Castelar may be a long way in advance of their fellows but their appearance at all is an encouraging sign for the future

THE MORMON PROBLEM AGAIN

Senator Christiancy is desirous of bringing to a definite determination the question whether the laws of the United States are to be enforced in Utah To that end he has introduced a bill into the Senate, providing that on indictments for bigamy, persons living with more than one woman and persons who express the opinion that polygamy is not morally wrong, shall be incompetent to serve on the jury The passage of this law would enable the counsel for the United States to challenge off jurors who belong to the Mormon Church and thus secure a fair trial Hitherto it has been next to impossible to convict anybody of violating the law against polygamy although the offense was openly committed by all the dignitaries of the Church But any one not himself a Mormon or dog, almost should be opposed to the law proposed by Senator Christiancy would seem hardly conceivable, but, it must not be forgotten that the party now in the majority in the House has been generally understood as hostile to the enforcement of the laws against the Mormons It was for this reason that Woods was removed and Axtell a Democrat, put in his place by the President, who has never failed to find on this Utah business when there was an emergency Judge McKean—who perhaps carried his feelings to an excess—was removed for no very apparent reason except his adjudging Brigham Young to pay alimony to his sixteenth concubine pending a suit to dissolve the bogus relation of husband and wife between them There has been thus far shown so little disposition to enforce the law, by any party, that the chances are that Christianey's bill will fail

The usual character of the weather in California suggests the inquiry whether the climate of this coast is undergoing a permanent change It is a well known fact that such changes do take place and that generally the change is from a warmer to a colder temperature Various causes have been suggested by philosophers for this one of which is that the heat of the earth itself is growing less and it has been asserted that the time will come when the coldness of the earth will become too great for human life to endure If this assertion be true it need excite no fears in the mind of this generation as the period at which that extreme degree of coldness is to be reached is fixed at a time some millions of years off

THE YEAR'S ESTIMATES

WASHINGTON Dec 29—The appropriation committee divided into sub committees has made a beginning upon the estimates furnished them for appropriations for the various departments and expenses of the government The figures composing these estimates are as formidable as could be desired and whatever may be their effect upon the gentlemen to whom their careful consideration is commended, to a casual scrutinizer they do not furnish cheerful entertainment Last year the total estimates were a little over $310 000 000 and the total appropriations were $293 103,177 making a deduction of nearly $17 000 000 The estimates for 1877 are

For Congress	$6 958 475
For Executive Department proper	78 400
For Department of State	1 691 095
For Treasury Department	171 198 377
For War Department	66 430 420
For Navy Department	22 292 4 8
For Interior Department	40 4 4 126
For Post Office Department	9 862,714
For Department of Justice	5 8 0 910
For Department of Agriculture	5 1 65
Total estimates	$311 613 608

being in excess of last year's estimates $4 681 839 and in the face of the recently inaugurated reforms and promises of retrenchment An item included in the estimates is that for rivers and harbors amounting to nearly $15 000 000 an expenditure which by former Democratic Congresses has been almost entirely ignored The estimates also include the two standard appropriations of $10 000 each for repairs and refurnishing the Executive Mansion and it would puzzle a competent critic to identify the specific benefits of either appropriation or to find the man who has ever seen the bills of items for these and similar specified sums There is an item of $5 000—the usual appropriation—for light and fuel for the White House which would give three hundred tons of coal fifty cords of wood and leave $2 100 for gas which reminds us of another item of $30 000 which the government pays for gas The estimates include the usual allowance of $5 000 for the executive green houses and $8 000 for stationery and the President is allowed $800 for postage The estimates for the public buildings and grounds in Washington are very large The latter expenditures are mainly disbursed by Babcock The law requires all disbursing officers to report bills of particulars but a member of Congress who has had quite an extended experience at the Capital solemnly affirms that he has never seen one of these documents furthermore that he has never been able to find anyone who has enjoyed that rare privilege The estimate for public buildings, all over the country justifies the descriptive vociferation of the enthusiastic Sellers, 'There are millions and millions in it' Some of the members of the committee who have not heretofore acquired the practical knowledge necessary to familiarize them with the facility with which the money goes investigate the stupendous array of figures work with feelings of mingled interest and dismay and they discover to their astonishment that Congress has been making appropriations for expenditures that they never heard of before that E Pluribus Unum is open to a suspicion of possible prodigality —Philadelphia Times

MEETING IN INTEREST OF SHIP-BUILDING —Saturday afternoon a meeting, composed of several leading and influential citizens of Portland, who are directly interested in ship building in Oregon was held at the private office of Ladd & Tilton On motion, W S Ladd Esq was called to take the chair Mr Edwin Russell submitted to the consideration of the meeting the plans and model of a large ship which had been drafted and prepared by Mr J C. Parker, a practical ship-builder The plans and model were examined carefully and discussed at some length At the close of the discussion the chair appointed a committee consisting of Hon H. W Corbett, Messrs C H Lewis, M S Burrell and Walter Moffett This committee will meet to morrow evening at the office of Messrs. Ladd & Tilton, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of consulting with the designer of the plan and model, and also Capt. FATAL CASUALTY —Last Thursday a fatal accident occured at Westport, on he Lower Columbia, resulting in the death of a man named Walker, an employe at the saw mill of Capt. West. The man was caught by the circular saws running at full speed, his body was thrown to the ceiling at the first stroke, and fell again before the saws when his right leg and arm were nearly severed from the trunk The foot and hand were cut completely off The unfortunate man was placed on board the steamer Dixie Thompson for Astoria, with the view of obtaining medical attention, but life was extinct before the steamer reached there Walker was a native of England, and he had been in Oregon but about three months The remains were taken to Westport Friday for interment.

ENTERTAINMENT AT TURN HALLE.—The stage of Turn Halle, though small, is well adapted for entertainments similar to that given last evening Quite a large audience filled the room to witness the performance of two short sketches, in which Messrs Eilers, Franz Barr, Getz, and Mast, and Miss Hoffman took part. Messrs. Franz and Getz carried off the honors of the even ing, their efforts being more natural and the rough than their fellow actors In addition to the sketches, Messrs. Franz and Levy recited and the singing section sang The entertainment was conducted in German and was fully appreciated by the auditors composed almost entirely of our German citizens

Morris, the champion skater on the Pacific coast, to a contest for the championship of this State, has been accepted by Messrs R H Thompson and Chas Mead the contest will come off Saturday evening, January 29th, at Wood's Museum Mr Wood will award a Centennial medal to the victorious competitor.

THE WEATHER.

COLUMBIA RIVER GORGED WITH ICE ABOVE THE CASCADES—TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF NAVIGATION BETWEEN PORTLAND AND THE DALLES—LOWER COLUMBIA FILLED WITH FLOATING ICE

Saturday morning while the steamer Idaho was on the way down from the Dalles the river was found to be filled with ice at Hood river Being unable to reach the Upper Cascades the steamer returned without making the connection with the Oneonta from this city Considerable quantities of floating ice were encountered by the Oneonta both in going and coming, and on reaching the city was taken to the boneyard where she will remain until the river becomes free from ice. Until the resumption of navigation the mail will have to be conveyed to and from the Dalles, overland, by way of the trail The Latest advices from up the Columbia indicate that the temperature is very low and the prospects of a general freeze up are very flattering

Sunday morning the steamer Occident left St Helens for this city Finding the Columbia filled with floating ice, Capt Pillsbury concluded it would be safe to come by way of the Slough He came that way and encountered no difficulty On reaching the Willamette Capt Pillsbury turned the prow of his steamer down stream and went to the mouth He found the Columbia filled with floating ice some of which was three inches in thickness

Yesterday morning the ship Aquan was taken in town by the steamer Willamette Chief, and started down the river When the Columbia was reached large quantities of ice were found floating, so it was determined to send the ship adrift and let her sail down the river as far as St Helens while the steamer would go down by way of the slough and meet the vessel there

In tow of the steamer Bonita the Abercrombie started down the river yesterday morning, but before proceeding far it was learned that the Columbia was filled with detached ice which the vessel came to anchor and the steamer returned to the city

The bows and sides of the steamers Bonita and Lewis Maynard were lined with plank yesterday, in order to protect the hull from the masses of floating ice An effort will be made by these boats to day to reach their respective destinations—Kalama and Astoria—but with what success remains to be seen There is some doubt about the Dixie Thompson being able to reach here this evening

The latest reports from up the Columbia indicate the following state of the weather

Wallula—Ther 8 this morning at 8 it was 4° below zero river fell six inches last night and is full of running ice

Walla Walla—Clear ther 14°

Umatilla—Cloudy ther now 14°, at 6 A M it was 10°

Dalles—Cloudy, ther now 10° was down to 6° at 8 o clock, river full of ice

Hood River—Snowing a little, ther 12°

Cascades—Snowing a little, heavy wind from northeast ther 15°

Y M C A. LECTURE.

The following letter written by Gen O O Howard, chairman of the lecture committee will explain itself

I have just received a letter from Judge R S Greene of Olympia, who is prevented by sickness from speaking for us next Tuesday evening The committee will postpone his lecture to the last and make it an additional one without cost to the holder of season tickets

The committee is fortunate in having a new comer Lieut Charles L S Wood the son of Surgeon General Wood of the navy, who was so favorably known before his retirement Lieut Wood has promised the chairman a humorous lecture on the subject of Children in case there should be a providential hindrance like the present

All the committees are requested to sell the remaining tickets at $1 25

The committee will secure both music and recitation as the lecture of Lieut. Wood is short

SAN FRANCISCO VIA VICTORIA.

A PORTLANDER ON THE WING

A well known gentleman of this city (whose nom de plume is Mulbi) now en route for San Francisco via Victoria writes us follows from Seattle, under date of the 16th inst

Prior to taking the swell of Portland for a brief season of travel and recreation, I promised you that nothing should escape mention by me which might in the slightest interest your readers The company which left Portland on the morning of the 14th per steamer Bonita was not a large one yet taken singly, some of the men were pretty big guns Ackerman is a host in himself you know and his traveling chum—may I humble self by the way is not the best land in the world at entertaining can at least chip in with a laugh when a full grown stretches that into a mammoth his Lime has sped pleasantly enough thus far all things considered and while in many respects Cook—especially in cookery—does not afford refreshment for the mind we take it all in just the same for in all man's lifetime as one would say In the way of scenery the country through which the railroad passes—i

from Kalama to Tacoma a distance of 105 miles is the most uninteresting that has ever come under my observation The picture seldom varies, and of grandeur there is positively naught There is barely the shadow of a town throughout its length while Skookum Chuck Wallace and Lake View aren't even shadows Tacoma the terminus is a tasty inficent city (in my mind's eye) and consists—what we could see of it—of a big hotel and warehouse built on piles and almost surrounded by water We reached the embryo city at dark and after affording the inner man his wonted comfort our little party started for a walk amid by a corporation moonlight of ebony hue We stumbled only a very few times within a distance of twenty yards which gave us just so many opportunities to discourse to our calm satisfaction upon the beauties of Jamaica We were told the town proper lay on top of a neighboring hill, but having neither lanterns or gum boots and withal no special motions, we retraced our steps intent to spend the time on the mask of the hotel, retiring early to rise again with the sun and then off with my Alaska Sound steamer, for Seattle Let me say of the hotel at Tacoma that except the Clarendon it is larger than any in Portland it is comfortably furnished, and Blackwell its proprietor is a tip top boss—deserving well the popularity which attaches to his name

At noon to day the Idaho landed us at Seattle I was at once impressed with the activity which prevailed Notwithstanding it is Sunday the streets are well peopled, in fact thronged and there is every indication of prosperity Sociability is strongly a characteristic feature, I should judge, and from numerous conversations with old and new acquaintances I am led to believe that grumblers must be exceedingly scarce for all are justly proud of their fair city and are not so little other—and I mite still brighter future have unbounded confidence There are some really elegant stores and stocks and also several brick buildings in contemplation There is not a vacant dwelling house, while demand for such I am told is constantly on the increase My stay here will be too short to allow me to gather much information but to give your readers some idea of business here I will make special mention of the Occidental Hotel of which Mr John Collins, an old resident of the territory and withal a most enterprising and influential citizen is proprietor In dimensions it excels the Occidental of Portland while the table which it spreads is remarkably excellent It is therefore no wonder that the boarders are numbered by the hundreds and that the capacious dining room is filled over and over again during the meal Indeed one must watch his turn there as he would in a Portland lake shore on Sunday mornings

At this hour—6 o clock P M—nothing has yet been heard of the City of Panama and it is not known whether or no she has arrived at Victoria yet There are quite a number of Portlanders here anxious for her coming but we are told that on the arrival of the steamer North Pacific—expected to arrive at midnight from Tacoma—it will convey the Panama passengers to Victoria to await there if they prefer the departure of the San Francisco steamer, and as it is impossible for us to obtain lodgings—all the hotels being full we have concluded to await the arrival of the North Pacific and bunk" in her and among the "concluders" is your humble servant

LETTER FROM EASTERN OREGON

BAKER CITY Jan 18 1876

To the Editor of the Oregonian

With your permission or not to-day I will start out first as any old contributor to your columns with the understanding that you will carry me through the surveying and kept what remains if any there be In case some of the Oregonian I noticed a correspondent of the Grant county makes a brief allusion to the great military land swindle Mr Barrett county correspondent mentions the name in this land or road company in his county and Wasco but only a portion of the evils wrought by it in these said counties We naturally suppose that when the bill passed the Oregon legislature granting [illegible] corporations, the State was to have an equivalent for the lands in some way, and that that amounted to the building and maintaining of good passable roads between certain points in this State The correspondent above alluded to told truthfully by whom these roads were built and that said company never had a hand in their construction nor were at any expense, comparatively speaking, every one knows That the road is not maintained as it should be nearly every one in Eastern Oregon knows if they have the pluck to say so In fact it is to be doubted whether the same amount of labor is expended on it that other roads receive in the same locality. Not need a person travel over the road to ascertain this, the mail conveyances between Canyon City and The Dalles as they arrive into the latter place with panting and worn out horses broken down stages, disgusted drivers and the whole arrangement, from foreman to rear covered with mud until it assumes the appearance of a traveling mass of Webfoot soil in mid winter, are enough to satisfy all how this public thoroughfare (?) is maintained These conveyances though capable of supporting a load for 1 500 pounds and to be driven at a good fair rate of speed have broken down several times this winter with only one third that amount, and three times in succession that being obliged to leave everything, but mail on the road and proceed on horseback with that to the jeopardy of their own lives and our public mail and treasure, as I all through the dishonest trickery of the aforesaid company When we come to reflect that the U S mail like freight teams and all the stock-raisers and farmers pay a good rate of toll for traveling over this road, that the company have received 600,000 acres of land for the construction and opening of it that they have spent little or nothing in its construction, and that it is not kept in any thing like a passable condition, then we can see a portion (only) of the great crime perpetrated against the people by these land vultures Let every one make an exhibition of the crimes of this and every other monopoly in his or her locality, until men in power will, for fear of public reproach and self-shame, not attempt to perpetrate any similar scheme hereafter.

I must not omit to mention that we have a stage company here, or running here known as the Great Northwestern, whose uncovered mud rigs are a shameful insult to the traveling public among which are included women and children, who are compelled to travel exposed to wind, snow, rain, and all, through the neglect of some one to furnish covered conveyances, since the O S N Co s boats have ceased running above Celilo

Only a few days ago every one was congratulating himself that our Centennial winter would be one among the rarest, but to-day was ushered in with a snow storm, and now we have from three to six inches of snow and still snowing. But stock are reported to be in an excellent condition, horses being able to withstand a six weeks' siege, and cattle good for one month The scarlet fever has made its appearance in our town The first death from it occurred last night, being the child of Mr Woods Our town is booked for a ball on the 27 t to be given by Columbians

WEATHER COLD AND MINERS IDLE—STOCK DOING WELL—FOR BETTER OR WORSE—RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE—THEATRICAL NOTES—PERSONAL AND COMPLIMENTARY—MASONS AND ORANGERS HALL AT BAKER CITY—THE POLITICAL LOT—QUARTZ AS A PAY AND AS AN INSPIRATION

CANYON CITY GRANT Co Jan 16, 1876

To the Editor of the Oregonian

Mineralogically speaking things are rigid in this district the mountains are snow capped and the streams ice bound Miners are idle as the flumes are frozen up

Stock looks well notwithstanding the cold weather, the tall bunch grass reaches above the snow, affording excellent pasturage

Since the cold weather commenced, marriages heretofore have been too numerous to mention The young the old, the gay and the festive, all seem to think it better to marry than to burn out their lives alone.

Rev. Mr. Grannis, is making things tropical for sinners, just below the city Last Sunday he immersed a number in the ice water of John Day May the good work go on

A theatrical troupe, composed of boys in blue from Camp Harney, have been giving a season of side splitting and mirth-provoking jamborees here this week Wandering humbugs gypsies and book agents a, idem get into this country Meals are six bits between the Dalles and here

Judge L O Stearns, of Baker, has been in the city this week, conducting an equity suit in a mining case Sam Parish, Chief of the Umatilla Tribe of Improved Red Men, was in the city last week Sam is a noble red man his tribe are hale and robust, and could not be improved by a visit from One-arm Brown

The Masons and Grangers have completed an elegant hall at Prairie City a few miles above Canyon City

I perceive just beginning to be kindled under the political cauldron The three parties elect ral men last election hence politicians are working matters very cautiously now A combination of properly organized, and not patched up one, prudently, might become a success in Grant county

Everybody here talks quartz I have a quartz ledge any one can locate a claim Gold gold, bright and yellow, in dust and rolled

Till now cheer up and forget the past
The days when I was hard up as a fool
And look at my quartz struck last last
Then would be [illegible] of gold

Color of gold, oh years ago,
In the spring time when daisies unfold
I will love I destine to go
And take give me a ringlet the color of gold

PLUMMER FRUIT DRYER.

AS A PROOF OF WHAT I HAVE HERETOFORE stated to the people of Oregon I give below a letter from the Plummer Fruit Drying Co of East Portland After the close of business of 1875 fully endorsing it, after using it one entire season and as a proof to substantiate what they say they now contemplate putting up another Dryer of the same capacity of the one they now have, which will increase their capacity to five hundred bushels of apples per day Having now located here in Portland for the purpose of supplying the demand for Fruit Dryers in Oregon and Washington Territory I can supply those dryers at a cost of from $1 000 to $4 000 according to capacity Warranted to dry from 8 to 10 bushels of apples per hour at a small cost for labor and fuel These machines being so cheap and simple in construction they cannot fail to supersede all other known machines It would also say to the fruit growers that I have invented a Machine (and am now waiting for a patent) that will cut and spread the fruit on the trays with a very small amount of labor Will have invented which I am sure that is on an entirely new principle paring soft as well as hard does its work well with great speed, and slices and pits the fruit ready for the Dryer in the best possible manner, and at a great saving in quantity of fruit

FRUIT DRYER TESTIMONIALS.

EAST PORTLAND, Jan 4th 1876

MR. W. S. PLUMMER—Dear Sir. As this is a time when all are much interested in Fruit Drying we think that in justice to you and for the information of the public it is but right and proper that we should give all the information that we can Now after having operated your Dryer during this season we feel warranted in saying that for the amount of money invested we still believe as we did from the start that your Dryer is the best Dryer yet introduced into this country The capacity of the Dryer we find to be about 8 (eight) bushels per hour The dried fruit we claim to be as good as any though perhaps not as much bleached as the "Alden" Fruit, and we are satisfied that we can produce Dried Fruit at less expense than the "Alden" The stockholders of our Company manifested their confidence in the Plummer Dryer at our meeting last Saturday by a unanimous vote to increase the capital stock $12 000 (twelve thousand dollars) for the purpose of adding one more Dryer to the present one and making other improvements for next season We will further say that we believe that by an improvement made by the patentee in the Heater and Fan that there will be an increase of capacity and a saving of Fuel

EAST PORTLAND Dec 13 1875

MR PLUMMER—Dear Sir I have been watching both the Alden and your Fruit Dryer the past season so as to determine which was the best Machine for drying Prunes I visited the Alden Dryer at Oregon City, and examined the Prunes dried on that Machine and I have also examined several lots dried on your Machine at East Portland and my opinion is that your Dryer is far the best Machine for drying Prunes for reasons are these Your Machine dries them without bursting or cracking while I noticed that a great deal of the fruit dried on the Alden Machine was burst open and after a Prune is burst in drying it is worthless for market as a Prune therefore I can recommend your Machine for drying Prunes or any thing else Yours truly
